2024 Gordonville Spring Sale In-Town Parking

DS Machine Lot

J&J Silo/Esch Hay Equip.

Gordonville Church

Hooper Feeds

These in-town lots, as well as all the outlying parking areas, are graciously provided by the local businesses. Please respect their properties by making sure you do not leave your trash behind in their parking lots.

Traffic directors will be present in all of these lots from early in the morning until they are full. We ask that you be patient and obey their orders on where to park as we generally park hundreds of vehicles and try our best to accommodate well over ten thousand people within a very short period of time.

HANDICAP PARKING

Unfortunately we cannot provide specific lots for handicap parking. The best option for this is to park at one of the outlying parking areas and ride the shuttle buses to the sale grounds. By doing so you will be able to get much closer to the sale grounds.

Maple Street NO PARKING regulations

Parking anywhere on Maple Street will absolutely not be tolerated. Any unattended vehicles will be at risk of being towed. NO EXCEPTIONS !!!

2024 Gordonville Spring Sale Road Closure Map

Irishtown Rd and Old Leacock Rd
 Vigilant St and Maple St
 Old Leacock Rd and Maple St.

These intersections will close at approximately 7:00 AM and will be closed the duration of the event. Absolutely no unauthorized traffic will be permitted to enter.

East Gordon Rd and N. Belmont Rd
 (Partial Closure)

East Gordon Rd will turn to West Bound Only as soon as the J&J Silo lot is full. Once the barriers are in place there will no longer be anywhere to park and you will be directed to turn right onto Maple St and exit the town of Gordonville via northbound Old Leacock Rd

Old Leacock Rd and Harvest Drive
 (Partial Closure)

Old Leacock will turn to North bound only, for all vehicles, at the same time as East Gordon Rd. Horses and buggies will be permitted to enter if they are parking at the John Esh farm.
